The enclosed entrance porch, with tiled floor, opens into the main living/dining room with open-tread stairs to the first floor. This light, bright and airy, double aspect room has a feature gas coal-effect fireplace with marble effect surround and mantelpiece.

The layout currently is living room at the front with the dining room at the rear with French doors at the end opening into the garden room. The garden room is constructed of eight, sealed unit double glazed panes with an insulated roof with a door out to the garden.

A door from the sitting area opens into the kitchen which is fitted with a range of pale, beech-effect kitchen units with an integrated fan oven and ceramic hob plus space for an under-counter fridge and space/plumbing for a washing machine. An opening from the kitchen leads into a utility area (at the back of the garage) from which there is a back door to the garden and storage cupboards plus the downstairs cloakroom and internal door into the long, attached garage with up and over door and window to the side.

Upstairs, the landing has the airing cupboard plus access to the boarded and insulated loft and doors to the three bedrooms and family bathroom.

The main bedroom is front aspect with built-in wardrobes, the second is rear aspect and the third, single bedroom overlooks the front (currently used as an office). The bathroom is fitted with a champagne suite comprising of W.C., bath with shower over and basin.

Outside, the property is approached across a concrete drive with an area of garden to the right. A passage at the side of the house leads to the back garden which is pretty with a pond, patio and shaded seating area plus a greenhouse. The passage continues past the greenhouse to the end of the garden where a secured gate gives access to an alleyway which is a useful short-cut to the High Street.
