Blackthorn Barn, Blankney, LN4 3BJ,
£475,000

Dating back to 1881, this former dairy farm was converted to an executive development of 5 dwellings approximately 20 years ago. Blackthorn Barn is the sole single storey dwelling and stretches over 2,200 Sq. Ft. and enjoys far fetching views over the rural Lincolnshire countryside. Nestled between farmers fields and the former RAF Metherringham airbase, the property is of unique standing and offers a rare opportunity for those looking for a special home with extensive outdoor space. In total, the plot measures approximately 0.8 acres (sts) and includes a landscaped rear garden, double garage and ample parking provisions. Internally, the home has maintained many of the original features of the barn with the lounge consisting of a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams. Furthermore, plenty of the rooms enjoy floor to ceiling windows allowing for the exceptional views throughout the internal space. Dining space is provided in the form of a kitchen diner with a range of units and access onto the main garden. There are 3 double bedrooms with a substantial master bedroom featuring ensuite with his and hers vanity units. In addition, there is a 4 piece family bathroom measuring 9'1x13'2. Other benefits to the property include; double garage with twin barn style access (19'3 x 18'10), second extensive storage space and ample parking for multiple vehicles or motorhome. The property comes with oil fired central heating, feature log burner and double glazing throughout. Being located just over 1 mile from Metherringham village provides the property with a range of multiple amenities such as; co-op foodstore/post office/pharmacy, primary school, multiple takeaways and public housing, primary school and nursery whilst also have a regularly serviced railway station and bus service.
