High Street, Reepham, LN3 4DP
£279,950

This charming period cottage is located in the quaint village of Reepham, located a short 10 minutes drive from the Cathedral city of Lincoln.

The property has undergone an extensive programme of refurbishments which includes an extension and remodel of the internal layout. All works were carried out by the previous owner 5 years ago.

Accommodation briefly comprises large open plan living space, kitchen diner fitted with a range of custom fitted units with integral appliances, utility room, separate lounge with feature wood burner.

Rising to the first floor there are 2 double bedrooms and a stylish 4 piece bathroom suite.

Outside the rear garden occupies a picturesque courtyard setting with a private garden, perfect for entertaining and relaxing with guests. Gated access provides off street parking. Gated access for providing parking provisions.

Throughout the property there are a range of original features such as exposed beams, chimney breast and exposed brickwork.

The village of Reepham is well regarded for it's close proximity to Lincoln city centre, whilst maintaining it's rural feel, with the added benefits of a primary school, post office, regular bus service and Fox & Hounds public house.
