UNIQUE GRADE II LISTED COTTAGE WITH CONVERSION OR BUSINESS POTENTIAL

Situated in the picturesque village of Normanby-by-Spital, this rare character property occupies a generous plot on Front Street. Originally built in 1797 and believed to be one of the oldest homes in the village, this Grade II listed cottage is steeped in history, with a wealth of charm, character and original features throughout.

The versatile layout not only makes it an exceptional family home, but also offers exciting potential to be adapted into two separate dwellings or for part of the property to be used as business premises (subject to consents).

Accommodation briefly comprises: entrance lobby, sitting room, dining room, 22'3 kitchen, original pantry/half-cellar with cold slab, summer room, winter room, utility and WC. Upstairs there are four double bedrooms and two bathrooms, including one bedroom with its own private staircase and en-suite shower room - ideal for a guest suite, annex, or business use.

Externally, the property enjoys a large driveway with ample parking, a substantial oak barn with garage and adjoining workshop, plus a generous south-facing rear garden offering excellent privacy.

The village itself boasts a pub, shop and primary school, making it a desirable location for both residential and mixed-use opportunities.

Council Tax Band: D. Freehold. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the full potential this property has to offer.
