Situation

The land is situated directly to the north of Treorchy. The land is a short travelling distance from Treorchy, Tonypandy & Porth providing convenient amenities as well as good transport links. Please see the attached location plan.

Description

The property extends to approximately 43.49 acres of gently sloping or steep pasture land and woodland as edged red on the attached site plan.

Lot 1:

Shown edged red and extending to 6.84 acres, or thereabouts. The land borders the adopted highway to the east. Included in the total area is approximately 4.29 acres of woodland.

Lot 2:

Shown edged purple and extending to 36.64 acres or thereabouts of steep permanent pasture and woodland.

The land would benefit from land management as it is overgrown with fern, briars and trees but offers biodiversity and potential access to public money for public goods schemes

The land is suitable for grazing purposes with potential considered for agricultural, equestrian and amenity use. The land also benefits from a natural water supply along its North Eastern boundary.

Approximately 13.90 acres of the land is identified as a Site of Importance for Nature Conservation (SINC). Of the 13.90 acres, approximately 2.57 acres is designated as Ancient Woodland, comprising of Oak and Birch Trees. Please refer to RCT Adopted Local Development Plan for more information.
