

LONG SUTTON

This detached bungalow was probably built in the late 1940s/early 1950s. Apart from the provision of oil-fired central heating, and a conservatory, the bungalow has hardly changed since it was built. A quick glance at the quality of the brickwork and the sound slate roof suggests it was built to a good standard, and so it offers the prospect of a good refurbishment project. The bungalow occupies a semi-rural setting about a mile from the town centre, with farmland to both the front and rear. IT OCCUPIES ABOUT HALF AN ACRE, HAVING PREVIOUSLY BEEN A FLOWER NURSERY.

The small but busy Market Town of Long Sutton has a good range of amenities including Co-Op Store/Post Office, Tesco One Stop, Boots, Health Centre, Library, Ironmongers, Electrical store, Dentists, Hairdressers and various eateries. The larger towns of Kings Lynn and Spalding are both approximately 13 miles away and have ongoing coach and rail links direct to London and the North. The North Norfolk coast is just a 45-minute drive. The smaller nearby Town of Sutton Bridge also offers a small Marina, a challenging Golf Course along with the Sir Peter Scott Walk.
