HYAKINTHOS, Upper Bucklebury, Reading, RG7 6SU

Hyakinthos Upper Bucklebury

A beautifully presented four bedroom detached family home, located in the sought-after village of Upper Bucklebury, originally dating from 1927 and subsequently extended to provide a deceptively large and versatile residence. The property has planning permission for an annex and a kitchen extension and sits on a plot measuring a quarter of an acre, whilst other benefits include uPVC double glazing, oil-fired central heating, ample driveway parking, double garage and a stunning rear garden backing onto a paddock. The ground floor comprises entrance hall, cloakroom with separate W/C, dining room, family room, drawing room with sliding door to the garden, kitchen/breakfast room and utility room. There is also a purpose built games room/home office on the basement level. On the first floor there is a spacious master bedroom and en-suite with roll-top bath and power shower, a guest bedroom - also with an en-suite bathroom, two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom with large tub and power shower. Externally, there is a pretty front garden, a large gated driveway and double garage with electric up-and-over door. To the rear of the house is a beautiful and very private enclosed garden that is immaculately kept and features a patio area, manicured lawn, established borders and an ornamental pond. Upper Bucklebury is located approximately 5 miles to the northeast of Newbury and has a general store, a village inn and a well-regarded C of E primary school. Hyakinthos also falls within the catchment area of the renowned Kennet School. The nearby town of Thatcham provides a regular direct rail link to London, Paddington taking less than an hour, COMPLETE ONWARD CHAIN
