Location and Lifestyle

Situated in the heart of Thrupp, just over two miles from Stroud town centre, this home enjoys easy access to local amenities, pubs, community spaces, and the beautiful Cotswold countryside. Excellent transport links include a nearby mainline station with a 90-minute direct service to London and close proximity to the M5 motorway.

Stroud is one of Gloucestershire's most sought-after market towns, set amidst the scenic Cotswold countryside and the convergence of the Five Valleys. Residents benefit from a mix of historic charm and contemporary amenities, including a bustling street market, shops, pubs, restaurants, and bistros. First-class schools cater to all age groups, while excellent local bus services and proximity to the M5 motorway provide convenient access to Gloucester, Cheltenham, and Bristol.

Education and Connectivity

There is a very popular and well regarded primary school (Thrupp School) within the village of within walking distance and Thomas Keble School in Eastcombe some 3 miles away. The area generally is well served by top rated schools for all age groups and benefits from a reliable local bus network. The nearby M5 motorway provides easy access to major cities, while Stroud's mainline railway station offers a direct, high speed service to London in approximately 90 minutes.
