Located in the coveted 'Artist Quarter' of Hastings, this exquisite period property, thought to be one of the oldest in the area, built in 1826, features stunning views across Hastings to the sea. The home includes a charming walled garden with rear access and a southeast aspect, along with spacious rooms brimming with character.

Situated on one of the most sought-after roads in Hastings, the property enjoys an elevated position on West Hill, offering extensive views over Hastings towards the English Channel and Beachy Head.
