OFFERS IN EXCESS OF £800,000 - CHAIN FREE

An exceptional four-bedroom Grade II Listed period house, built around the late 1700s, located in one of the most sought-after and prime areas within Hastings' historic Old Town.

Positioned directly opposite East Hill steps, the house offers access to Hastings Country Park and boasts extensive, commanding views over the Old Town, West Hill, seafront, and extends across the English Channel towards Beachy Head in Eastbourne.

The property features versatile living accommodation spread over four floors, including two dual-aspect reception rooms, a contemporary fitted kitchen with French doors from the extended dining area opening onto the rear courtyard, a re-fitted family bathroom with a separate shower cubicle, and two separate W.C.s. The principal rooms are dual-aspect with stunning views, and there is also access to the rooftop, offering 360-degree views.

Properties of this quality and condition rarely come to the market and the owners have created a beautiful home in amazing condition.

Additionally, the house retains many original features, including staircases and fireplaces, and exudes character and charm. Viewing is strictly by appointment with Old Town agents, Just Property.
