PROPERTY DETAILS

A beautifully presented four-bedroom home located on the highly sought-after 'The Croft', boasting panoramic views across Hastings Old Town, East Hill, and out to sea. Arranged over four floors, the property combines elegant period features with versatile living spaces and a mature garden.

On entering, you are welcomed by a charming hallway leading to a front reception room with a bay window and working feature fireplace. The main living room enjoys breath-taking views across the town and coastline – the perfect spot to unwind.

The first floor offers two generous bedrooms both storage: the front with a bay window overlooking the sea and East Hill, and the second with views over The Croft. A bathroom with W/C and shower completes this level.

The top floor provides two further double bedrooms, currently used as artist studios, both filled with natural light and benefitting from built-in wardrobes. and a family bathroom. The original staircase runs centrally through the house, illuminated by a large working skylight that enhances the character of the home.

The lower ground floor comprises a well-appointed kitchen with hardwood units and excellent storage. A dining room overlooking the garden, and a separate W/C, are also found here. This level has its own entrance, offering potential as a self-contained flat.

The mature, professionally designed garden is generous in size, enjoying excellent light and it views of East Hill, with a useful shed at the far end.

Further benefits include recently refurbished, insulated sash windows, original floorboards, cornicing, fireplaces, storage, and a new efficient boiler.

Set within one of the Old Town's most desirable enclaves, the property is moments from East Hill, West Hill, the seafront, and Hastings town centre. Hastings Station offers direct services to London (Charing Cross, Kings Cross International) and Brighton in around 90 minutes, making it ideal for commuters.
