PROPERTY DETAILS

A beautifully presented three-bedroom detached home situated in a quiet, sought-after residential area of St Leonards.

Conveniently located close to local shops, bus routes, schools, and just a short distance from St Leonards town centre, Hastings, and the seafront with its promenade, this property offers both comfort and excellent accessibility.

The accommodation has been finished to a high standard by the current owners and includes a welcoming entrance hallway with a useful ground floor WC, a recently updated kitchen with integrated appliances and excellent lighting, and a spacious open-plan reception room with French doors opening onto the rear garden. On the first floor, there is a family bathroom, two well-proportioned double bedrooms, and a slightly smaller third bedroom, which enjoy fantastic views towards the English Channel from the rear of the property.

Externally, the property benefits from an attractive front garden, off-road parking, and a spacious garage. The fully enclosed rear garden features side access, a lawn, patio area, and well-maintained plants and shrubs, perfect for outdoor entertaining or relaxation.

Additional benefits include recently installed UPVC double glazing and gas central heating. This detached home is a real credit to the current owners and viewing is highly recommended by the vendor's sole agents, Just Property.
