

Comer House is an award-winning architect-designed modern development with unique, stunning features, including a large glass, steel, and wood decked balcony which encircles the apartment, providing breath-taking panoramic views towards Hadley Common. The property comprises two double bedrooms with built-in glass wardrobes, two en-suite shower rooms, a fully equipped fitted kitchen with modern integrated appliances, and a spacious, bright reception room with doors leading on to an enviable wrap-around balcony. Residents' benefits include an unprecedented array of local amenities, including bespoke shops, cafes, bars, a shopping mall, and many fine restaurants located within Barnet village. The apartment is situated within a minutes' walk of New Barnet (Mainline) Station.
