Outside

The property stands within most impressive and attractive gardens and grounds extending to approximately one acre. To the side of the garage is a sloping garden planted with fruit trees. There is a log shed, coal store and garden tool shed.

To the rear of the property is an attractive lawned garden with planted borders, sitting areas and two useful stone storage sheds. Beyond the lawned back garden, steps lead to a woodland area and bog garden, from which there are steps (some uneven) leading to a further natural grassed area and the Crimble Beck. This, and a good size timber summerhouse, provide an excellent tranquil space for sitting and relaxing.

Agent's Note

The property has a recently installed modern sewage treatment plant.

Directions

The property is located along Crimble Lane. To access the property from Wetherby Road turn onto Ridding Lane, and then take the first right onto Crimble Lane. Proceed along Crimble Lane until the end, and then turn left, where Mill Cottages will be seen in front of you.
