A rare opportunity to acquire a detached family home in one of the area's most desirable and sought after residential locations, on the outskirts of Trentham overlooking the second fairway at Trentham Golf Club. Arbury occupies a large established plot, set well back from the road in an elevated position with far reaching views over the golf course and is within strolling distance to the clubhouse.

The house itself has been extensively remodelled and upgraded by the present owners, including re-configuration of the ground floor layout, with bespoke dining kitchen and family room, double glazed windows throughout and a new central heating system. This is a lovely property which offers beautifully appointed accommodation catering for every requirement of twenty first century family life whilst being within easy reach of local schools and a host of amenities in Trentham and the wider area.
