An amazing period home in a unique location at the heart of the historic Trentham Estate. Ewelme is a piece of living history which was designed by Sir Charles Barry, also noted for The Palace of Westminster and Elizabeth Tower. In its present ownership the house has been extensively remodelled and upgraded, successfully combining the beauty and elegance of a bygone era whilst catering for every need of twenty-first century family life. The house is beautifully presented throughout offering oodles space for living both inside and out, an elegant sufficiency of four bedrooms and two bathrooms and a converted basement games room. The self-contained annexe is a fantastic addition to the property, perfect for hosting extended family or a wide variety of ancillary uses. Ewelme is a spectacular and unique property, rich in character and charm, perfectly blending its magnificent history as a working estate property with modern, tasteful design that makes for a wonderful family home.

Countryside walks are on the doorstep with the spectacular Trentham Gardens just yards away where 725 acres of natural beauty and award winning gardens lie in await of exploration, as is the glorious ancient woodland, a unique outdoor shopping village and regular events. As a resident, you will enjoy a free annual pass to the Trentham Estate, half price tickets to events at Trentham, Golf Club membership, access to Vicarage Woods and access to the historic Ice House. The Poachers Cottage pub / restaurant is within strolling distance and there are multiple dining opportunities within Trentham Shopping Village.

Minutes away from the A34, A50 and M6, the property is within easy commuting distance of The Potteries, Stone and Stafford and 10 mins from Stoke-on-Trent station: London Euston 1hr 40 mins, Manchester Piccadilly 45 mins, Birmingham New Street 40 mins.

Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham and East Midlands airports are all within a hour drive.
