

45, Crossfield Avenue, Blythe Bridge, Stoke-On-Trent, ST11 9PL

Asking Price £269,950

The house style that never goes out of fashion! A traditional bay fronted semi in a leafy suburban cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Blythe Bridge. The accommodation is as you would expect of this house style featuring a welcoming entrance hall, two well proportioned reception rooms, extended kitchen with space for dining, rear hall and downstairs WC, complemented upstairs by two double bedrooms and a single bedroom and shower room. Step outside and you will discover a generous size corner plot with gardens to three sides, long driveway and detached garage. The size and shape of the plot does lend itself to extending the property (subject to planning) without sacrificing too much garden space. Great location tucked away in a quiet corner of Blythe Bridge within walking distance of the village centre, railway station and local schools.

Entrance Hall

Recessed porch and wooden part glazed door to the side of the house and window to the front. Staircase to the first floor landing with storage cupboard below. Radiator.

Sitting Room
