

Ashdale House, Meadow Lane, Fulford, ST11 9RZ

Asking Price £840,000

In our humble opinion this is one of the nicest family homes you will find for sale anywhere in the area. Ashdale House is beautifully appointed throughout having abandoned the generic grey & white colour scheme in favour of a more opulent palette. The accommodation is spacious throughout, catering for every requirement of twenty-first century family life featuring two reception rooms, large open plan dining kitchen and separate laundry, complemented upstairs by a spacious gallery landing, four double bedrooms, sumptuous en-suite to the main bedroom and a family bathroom. The property occupies a discreet position on the edge of Fulford village, in a slightly elevated plot with secluded gardens and far reaching country views to the front. Fulford is a popular and sought after village with great community spirit, a thriving village pub, highly regarded primary school and village hall with regular activities. Conveniently located within easy reach of The Potteries, Stone and within a few minutes drive of both the A50 and M6 jct 15.
