CHESTERTONS

Nestled within a distinguished period stucco building, this split-level (ground and first floor) apartment on Cleveland Square is an elegant and practical London home. Boasting three bedrooms and two bathrooms, its grandeur is matched by its prime location; with Crossrail and the Heathrow Express at Paddington Station, Hyde Park, Kensington Gardens, Queensway and Westbourne Grove all in easy walking distance. The spacious reception area offers panoramic views of the meticulously manicured communal gardens (ideal for alfresco dining), while the large dine-in kitchen beckons culinary creativity. With ceilings soaring at 3.63 metres, ornate period features throughout (including four enchanting fireplaces), every corner exudes timeless charm. Gleaming wood floors add warmth and character to the space, complementing its heritage. Its own front door and porch on the street ensures privacy and exclusivity, while the high windows (including original stained-glass) and skylights provide abundant light. Situated in the coveted enclave of Cleveland Square it is a quintessential address for those seeking the epitome of London living.
