Busy market town (granted by King Henry III in 1252) conveniently situated close to Hadrian's Wall amongst rolling Cumbrian countryside just 10 miles from the regional administrative centre of Carlisle. Handy for the A69 for Newcastle and the M6. Excellent range of local amenities including places to eat and drink, post office, medical practice, public transport and William Howard Secondary School. Easy access for the Eden Valley, North Pennines, Lake District and Scottish Borders. The City of Carlisle has a growing café culture and an expansive range of amenities including a Westcoast Mainline Station with direct services to London in around 3 hours 20 minutes. Many other direct services including to Glasgow, Edinburgh, Manchester and airport, Lake District and Birmingham.

DESCRIPTION

This impressive Grade II Listed dwelling is rather special having a great deal of period style and character providing generous accommodation over three floors. The setting and large gardens are delightful. The approach is off Main Street via a shared tree lined private lane to an area of parking. Once inside, the spacious entrance lobby accesses the hall which features a fine cantilevered staircase with ornate iron balustrades and crafted handrail. The living space is superb and includes a large sitting room with dual aspect, a dining room and south facing snug/living room. The generous kitchen has original cupboards and a fireplace with a stove. Also on the ground floor is a utility, boot room and shower room. On the first floor are four double bedrooms, one ensuite and family bathroom. The second floor has two further double bedrooms, an ensuite, box room and playroom/bedroom. The property has been a much loved family home for the past 27 years however is now ready for new owners to make their mark. This is a wonderful, large family home in a delightful location with scope for multi generational living, annex, or work from home. The potential is huge and we feel that sensible investment will reward.
