Bromley, BR1 4HS

£750,000 Freehold EPC: D

 Maguire Baylis

Maguire Baylis are pleased to present to the market this impressive four bedroom 1920's built semi-detached family home, located within a popular residential road and benefiting from a delightful south facing garden extending to over 100'.

This lovely property, which has been enjoyed by the current owners for 18 years, provides well-proportioned accommodation throughout comprising: an enclosed entrance porchway leading to a welcoming 17' reception hallway; there are two reception rooms - the lounge with French doors accessing the garden. The 16' fitted kitchen completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, via a spacious landing, there are the four bedrooms - three doubles plus a good sized single room. The family bathroom provides a modern suite featuring bath plus separate shower cubicle. There is also a separate WC. Outside, the rear garden is a particular feature, mainly laid to lawn and providing a high degree of seclusion with mature trees and shrubs as an attractive backdrop. The property is set on a wide plot with a large garage to the side plus useful yard area. There is also an outside WC.

Avondale Road is well located for a number of stations which includes Bromley North, Sundridge Park, Ravensbourne & Shortlands offering access into central London. Bromley town centre is also within easy reach featuring an array of shop, bars, restaurants and leisure amenities.

Bromley and the surrounding areas have a number of well-regarded schools including Braeside Preparatory School, Bullers Wood, Bromley High Schools, plus nearby Parish Primary School. Leisure and recreational facilities include Sundridge Park Golf course, Bromley Cricket Club and Sundridge Park Tennis and Squash club along with various open park spaces including Beckenham Place Park.
