£350,000 Leasehold EPC: C

 Maguire Baylis

GUIDE PRICE £350,000 – £375,000

An impressive ground and first floor split-level maisonette providing beautifully appointed three bedroom accommodation.

This super property forms part of a well kept ex-local authority development which is located in a popular and highly convenient road, just a few minutes walk to Bromley High Street and surrounding town centre facilities.

The property is accessed via a private front door on the ground floor and, internally, the spacious accommodation is arranged just as one would expect in a house – with a welcoming entrance hallway, large living room and well appointed kitchen on the lower level. Upstairs, the first floor provides three well proportioned bedrooms plus a modern family bathroom and separate toilet.

Overall, the property provides a great feeling of light and space and plenty of useful built-in storage.

Outside, there is residents parking within the development and extensive communal grounds including a private children's play area. There is also a private storage shed – ideal for bikes etc.

For families, it is worth noting that the highly regarded Valley Primary School in Beckenham Lane is very close by.

For recreation, Bromley and Shortlands provide a great choice of parks and outdoor spaces. The highly popular Beckenham Place Park is also close by and offers country walks and, for the more adventurous, the outdoor swimming lake. Shortlands station/local shops are within easy reach on foot, nearby Bromley South station provides fast trains to London Victoria in just 17 minutes, and Bromley North station also provides links to London Bridge.
