£600,000 Freehold EPC: D

 Maguire Baylis

Guide Price: £600,000 - £625,000. Beautifully Presented Victorian Semi in the Heart of Shortlands Village

This charming extended Victorian semi-detached house has been meticulously appointed throughout, cleverly combining period character with modern living.

At the heart of the home is a stunning 24' kitchen, beautifully designed with two roof lanterns, a full range of integrated appliances – including three ovens – and excellent space for dining and entertaining. The property also offers two delightful reception rooms, both featuring original fireplaces, adding character and warmth to the property.

Upstairs are two bedrooms, the master benefitting from a range of bespoke fitted wardrobes. A spacious family bathroom, luxuriously finished with a five-piece suite, completes the upper floor. A useful downstairs WC also adds convenience.

The property further benefits from a fully insulated garden room/home office, ideal for flexible working, along with a secluded, low-maintenance courtyard garden. Throughout, careful attention has been given to detail, with bespoke storage solutions maximising space.

Perfectly situated, the house enjoys a highly convenient position in the very heart of Shortlands Village – directly opposite the sought-after Valley Primary School, just a short walk into Bromley town centre, and only a few minutes' stroll to Shortlands station with fast connections into central London.
