

42 Bromley Crescent
Shortlands, Bromley, BR2 0HA
£650,000 Freehold EPC:

 Maguire Baylis

Guide Price: £650,000 – £675,000. A characterful three double bedroom Victorian end of terrace home, set within a highly favoured residential area surrounded by similar period properties and offering excellent access to both Bromley South and Shortlands stations.

The property offers generous accommodation arranged over three floors, retaining many original features including sash windows and feature fireplaces. It also benefits from a modern fitted kitchen, a spacious family bathroom with both bath and large shower, plus a full loft conversion providing a good-sized double bedroom with en-suite shower room.

The ground floor features an impressive through reception room arranged as separate lounge and dining areas, with exposed and varnished floorboards and a central fireplace. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of units, solid wood butcher-block style worktops and a butler sink.

To the first floor, there are two bedrooms – the main extending to 14'6 – together with the particularly spacious bathroom. Externally, the rear garden enjoys a sunny south-westerly aspect and extends to around 50ft.

Bromley Crescent is ideally located within easy walking distance of Bromley town centre with its extensive range of shops, restaurants and amenities. Well-regarded local schools nearby include Valley, Highfield, St Mark's and the Harris Academy Shortlands.
