Situation

Over Stowey is a hamlet that sits next to the village of Nether Stowey. Nether Stowey lies on the northern slopes of the Quantock Hills, which is designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. This attractive, thriving and historic village is believed to date back to Anglo-Saxon times and indeed, features a mound, where once stood an 11th century Motte and Bailey castle. In more recent times it was home to the poet, Samuel Coleridge, from 1797-1800. During this time he wrote some of his most famous work, including Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Kubla Khan. Today, his former home is owned by the National Trust and open to the public.

In addition, there are a wide range of day-to-day facilities, including: a primary school, church, library, vets, hall, two stores – including a post office, two public houses, a hairdressers and butchers. The village lies approximately eight miles to the west of Bridgwater and ten miles to the north-west of Taunton. Both provide a wider range of amenities, as well as M5 motorway access and mainline rail links to the rest of the country.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

White Horse Farm was formerly owned by the local council and sold to our clients during early 2020. Since that time, the property has benefited from a significant remodelling, extension and modernisation programme, and now provides an extremely spacious and impressive family home.

The main body of the extension is a two-storey wing, which on the ground floor provides a large living room, measuring approx. 30' x 15' (9.14 x 4.60), and on the first floor, two double bedrooms. One of which is the principal bedroom suite, with a dressing room, en-suite and floor to ceiling picture windows, which provide stunning, panoramic views over the abutting countryside and beyond. In addition to these, on the first floor, are four further bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, and a main family bathroom, featuring an attractive four-piece suite, including a freestanding bath on a raised plinth.

The ground floor provides a hall, off of which are the boiler and utility rooms, the latter with a w/c. The hall then leads into a large kitchen/dining room, fitted with range of bespoke units with shaker style fronts. As well as windows to both main aspects, there are double doors leading outside. From the kitchen, a door leads into an inner hall, which provides a 'snug' seating area, as well as leading into the aforementioned main living room. It also provides access to another reception/hobbies room. Stairs to the first floor rise from the inner hall. There is a half-landing, with a window seat, adjacent to a large picture window, offering a further vantage point from which the stunning views can be enjoyed from.

In addition, part of the property would make an ideal annexe, or holiday let, making it potentially suitable for those with dependent relatives, or those looking for an additional income stream. (Subject to obtaining the necessary consents).

White Horse Farm sits back from the road, within a plot of roughly three-quarters of an acre. There is a driveway and parking area, providing parking for several vehicles. To the rear, are outbuildings and stores, as well as a lower area of lawn partially enclosed by stone walling.

The property has been fitted with replacement UPVC double glazed windows and doors, a sewerage treatment plant, oil fired central heating system and hard-wired CCTV.
