

This wonderfully modernised and extended four bedroom bungalow really must be seen to be appreciated. Located on a quiet street in the popular village of Sadberge, not far from the towns of Darlington and Stockton, the property is ideally located to enjoy rural and town living. The beautifully crafted interior accommodation consists on an entrance hallway, double bedroom to front, shower room, spacious living room, kitchen dining room, house bathroom, two further double bedrooms to the rear and a final bedroom/study or home office leading to the added garden room. Externally the property offers ample off street parking via a pretty brick paved driveway and a generous rear garden with numerous paved areas and a sunny lawn. Finished to a great standard the property includes UPVC double glazing throughout and gas central heating, as expected. EPC rating D, Darlington Borough Council tax band D.
