

10 Pennyfield Close, Meanwood
£420,000

Located in the popular Woodlea development, this deceptively spacious 4-bedroom townhouse sits in a quiet cul-de-sac that backs onto woodland. This house boasts a huge living room with woodland views overlooking a private rear garden, as well as generously sized bedrooms, dining room, contemporary fitted kitchen, 3 baths, a utility room and an integral garage. To the front there is off-road parking for 2 cars. The house is offered with no forward chain

Situated in this quiet enclave at the top of this popular development we have a fantastic size property, the room sizes are simply huge! Briefly comprising: Spacious entrance hallway, access to integrated garage (currently used as a home gym), double bedroom/study/garden room which looks onto the garden, bathroom with shower and utility room with a door leading straight onto the garden. The ground floor is a versatile area. To the first floor is a modern fitted kitchen with plentiful storage and integrated appliances. The dining room leads directly off the kitchen with double doors leading into the living room. These living spaces all flow well and would be great for entertaining but also have the added bonus of having separate reception rooms. The living room is massive! You could easily have a dining area in this room if you wished to use the dining room for a different purpose. The living room has double doors looking over the woodland and garden making this a peaceful reception room to sit and enjoy the view from. There is a third bedroom/home office which overlooks the front. To the third floor is the master suite which is another cavernous room and also enjoys the woodland view, the master has plenty of room for a dressing area, built in wardrobes & modern en-suite with double shower. There is a further double bedroom which is well proportioned and looks over the front. The house bathroom has a bath with shower
