

78 Victoria Road

Penarth, Vale of Glamorgan, CF64 3HZ

A superb, detached period residence situated on a larger than average plot, which has undergone a considerable refurbishment in recent years. The property also benefits from a self-contained annex. The main property comprises three ground floor reception rooms as well as a very impressive kitchen / diner while there are then six bedrooms and four bathrooms on the upper floors. Extensive off road parking to the front and a sizeable, mature rear garden. Included in the renovations is a ground source heat pump, windows and insulation which has dramatically improved the energy efficiency of the house. Viewing is strongly advised. EPC: TBC.

Annex Garden

The Annex has a small, private garden, laid to slate chippings and with the original stone wall to one side. There is also a driveway that has its own gate. This parking and garden space can be completely self contained if required.

Outside

Front and Side

An extensive off road parking area that also provides access to the rear garden and annex. Laid to stone chippings and with a significant area of wildflowers to the side, through which you can walk through to the rear garden. There are two gates from the road, which allows in and out style access, as well as a gate to the rear.

Rear Garden

A large, mature and very private rear garden with a south easterly aspect. Natural stone paved terraces from both the kitchen and games room, with steps down to the lawn. These terraces have ample space for entertaining and taking in the best views of the garden. The main lawn is of excellent proportions and is bordered by original stone walls to both sides as well as the mature trees and plants. There is also a large area to the rear of the garden which could be developed into the main space but is absolutely ideal for storage and has a sizeable shed. There is wide side access to the front.
