Location

Stanford-in-the-Vale is a large village approx. 3.5 miles south-east of Faringdon and 5 miles north-west of Wantage, in The Vale of White Horse. Well served by the recently refurbished Horse & Jockey public house, a primary school, pre-school, shops and businesses, as well as numerous clubs and societies, the village also boasts its own community bus service, set up and operated by volunteers, since 1982. With many period properties and superb access to the picturesque Oxfordshire countryside communication links are excellent via the A417 to the A420 for Oxford and Swindon and the A34, north and south. More comprehensive details with regard to the myriad of facilities on offer can be found at <http://www.stanford-in-the-vale.co.uk>. A plethora of opportunities is provided for country walks and the village has true feel of traditional country life.
