Description

Beautiful Grade II listed, village house fusing modernity with period charm, set within a historic stable yard in one of the area's most desirable villages. Stunning features include inglenook fireplaces with wood-burning stoves, a vaulted ceiling in the dining room, a bespoke bathroom, and courtyard parking and garage, with a gallery above. A rare opportunity to own a character-filled home with space, style, and history in an idyllic setting. The generous accommodation features four reception rooms, four bedrooms, a large kitchen, and not only a bathroom on the first floor but also a cloakroom and shower room on the ground floor, with a cellar beneath. Indeed, the configuration of the dining room, gallery, shower room, and garage offer the opportunity to become annexed accommodation or work-from-home offices. The beautifully formed courtyard garden provides some outdoor space which, if utilised as such, would mean the ample on-street parking would need to be implemented.

Location

These thriving village communities lie approx. 4 miles to the east of Wantage, providing access to the A34 and beyond, via the A417. With three superb public houses, The Eyston Arms, The Wheatsheaf, and recently re-opened The Extraordinary Hare, sports club, and traditional village store in East Hendred, rural life is further enhanced by pedestrian and cycle access to the surrounding open countryside, specifically the ancient path of the Ridgeway. There are excellent communication links and the villages boast two schools, churches, and much character. With easy access to Didcot Parkway and London Paddington only a further 40 mins by train, these picturesque villages are a haven for the commuter and fully deserve their status as arguably the most favoured in the area. There is a superb range of schools in the area, including St Hugh's, Pinewood, Cothill, and Radley; The Dragon, Summerfields Headington and Magdalen College School in Oxford, Abingdon School, together with St Helen's and St Katharine's in Abingdon.
