GREEN &
CO

Description

Tucked away along a tree-lined driveway, this exceptional four-bedroom detached home offers a rare blend of traditional charm and modern living. Built by the award-winning David Wilson Homes, the property forms part of an exclusive development known for its elegant design and high-quality finish and is available with no onward chain. Presented in excellent condition, the spacious layout includes a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room, two additional reception rooms and a purpose-built study, perfect for flexible family living, and four generously sized bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite, while the west-facing rear garden provides a private, sunlit retreat. Further features include a garage, off-road parking, and a welcoming village setting surrounded by stunning countryside. This is a fantastic opportunity to enjoy contemporary comfort in a peaceful, semi-rural location.

Location

Stanford in the Vale is a large village approx. 3.5 miles south-east of Faringdon and 5 miles north-west of Wantage, in The Vale of White Horse. Well served by the recently refurbished Horse & Jockey public house, a primary school, pre-school, shops and businesses, as well as numerous clubs and societies, the village also boasts its own community bus service, set up and operated by volunteers, since 1982. With many period properties and superb access to the picturesque Oxfordshire countryside communication links are excellent via the A417 to the A420 for Oxford and Swindon and the A34, north and south. More comprehensive details with regard to the myriad of facilities on offer can be found at <http://www.stanford-in-the-vale.co.uk>. A plethora of opportunities is provided for country walks and the village has true feel of traditional country life.
