

A deceptively spacious two bedroom maisonette providing 688 sqft of accommodation set over two floors (upper ground and first floors) located in a popular and highly convenient location just 0.3 miles walk of Bat & Ball rail station, offering easy commuting links to London. Within similarly easy reach are a host of doorstep amenities and stores, including a Sainsbury Local store, as well as both Sainsbury and Aldi superstores (0.7 miles). Forming part of this charming period building the ground floor comprises a sitting room with separate kitchen / dining room, while the first floor comprises two bedrooms and the bathroom. Further benefits include one private parking space to the rear of the property and a share of the freehold with no applicable maintenance charges. Thought to be ideal as a first purchase or investment purchase, the property is available with NO ONWARD CHAIN and your internal viewing comes highly recommended.
