Wooller Road, Low Moor, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD12 0RR

This end of terrace, one-bedroom property is for sale in the residential area of Low Moor, Bradford. The terraced house is neutrally decorated throughout, offering a blank canvas for prospective buyers. An open-plan living arrangement seamlessly links the reception room and kitchen, providing a sociable space for relaxing or entertaining. The reception room also offers direct access to a small yard. The property additionally features a cellar, providing valuable extra storage.

The double bedroom benefits from neutral decor, while the bathroom is fitted with a heated towel rail. Property is currently tenanted, but will be sold with vacant possession.

Situated on Wooller Road, the location offers convenient access to public transport links. Low Moor railway station is a short walk away, providing direct services to Bradford Interchange in under 10 minutes and Leeds in approximately 25 minutes, making it ideal for commuters. The area is also well-served by local bus routes, further enhancing connections across Bradford and through to Halifax.

Local amenities are within easy reach, with shops, supermarkets, and cafés located in Low Moor and nearby Odsal. For leisure, Harold Park is nearby, offering green spaces for walks and recreation. Schools and nurseries are also in the vicinity, making this property suitable for a range of buyers.

This property is offered for sale and is particularly well-suited to first-time buyers or investors seeking a well-connected location with convenient local facilities.

Please note: One of the pictures of the bedroom have been edited to hide personal effects.
