Offers In The Region Of £75,000

4 Ned Lane, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD4 0EH

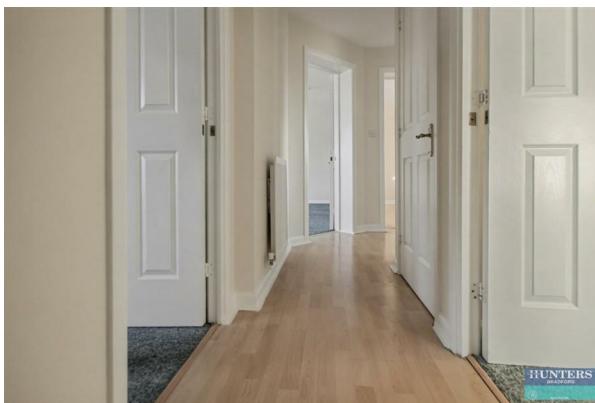

For sale is this two-bedroom apartment located in Bradford. The property features two double bedrooms, providing ample space for residents. There is one bathroom fitted with a heated towel rail for added comfort. The flat also benefits from a bay window in the generously sized Living room, offering views and bringing natural light into the living areas. Residents have access to parking, a notable advantage for those commuting by car.

Local amenities are within easy reach, with nearby shops, supermarkets, and cafés found in the surrounding area. For families, several schools are situated close to the property, making this flat a practical choice for those with children. The area is also known for its accessible walking routes, allowing residents to enjoy the local parks and green spaces.

Convenient public transport links are available, with Bradford Interchange being the nearest major train station. Regular services connect Bradford to Leeds in under 25 minutes, as well as direct routes to Manchester and other West Yorkshire destinations. Local bus services run frequently, ensuring accessible connections throughout the city and to the wider region.

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate proximity to Bradford's walking routes and parks, such as Bowling Park and the nearby Peel Park, ideal for recreational activities and relaxation. The flat's central position also means quick access to the city's high street, providing a range of shops, restaurants, and cultural attractions.

This property offers residents the benefit of both practical features and a convenient location within Bradford, combining comfortable living with access to city amenities and transport links.
