SITUATION The property is conveniently positioned close to the historic Lindford Mill only 6 miles from the Surrey border. Close by are the villages of Headley and Liphook the latter offering a railway station some 5 miles distant with a frequent train service to both London Waterloo and the South Coast at Portsmouth. Buses passing through the village serve Liphook, Haslemere, Farnham and Aldershot. Local shopping facilities are catered for in the village centre with a Spar convenience store with sub post office together with a small parade of shops with adjacent well regarded Public House. Larger villages such as Grayshott and Liphook offer more comprehensive shopping with a "Sainsburys" super market at Liphook. Adjacent the cricket ground and sports pavilion in Lindford is Broxhead Common affording access to acres of dry heathland and forming a local Nature Reserve ideal for dog walking. In fact the Common forms part of the Shipwrights Way a pathway for walking, cycling and horse riding which runs from Alice Holt Forest in the north all the way to Portsmouth Harbour in the south approximately 50 miles in distance. The A3 London to Portsmouth road is easily accessible from Liphook, with access through the Hindhead Tunnel providing dual carriageway through to the M25 at Junction 10. The main London airports of Gatwick and Heathrow are 51 miles and 42 miles respectively. Likewise the A3 provides access south to The South Downs National Park and Portsmouth on the south coast.
