High Street

Castle Bytham, Grantham, NG33 4RZ

Situated on an elevated position with lovely far reaching views to the front over the village of Castle Bytham towards open land and with St James Church as a back drop to the rear, this established detached home is on a generous corner plot. The property could do with a general update but the plot gives great scope, subject to planning, to remodel and extend the existing property if required. In brief the accommodation comprises reception hall, galley style kitchen, bathroom, dining room with opening through to living room with fireplace. To the first floor there are 3 good bedrooms with one having a WC & hand basin facility. The property has oil central heating and replacement double glazing. Externally the property is on an elevated corner plot with gardens to front, side & rear with driveway access to the side (shared giving access to neighbouring property) with detached garage and storage shed. The gardens are principally laid to lawn with shrubs and patio areas. The property is offered with no chain.
