This detached family home was originally built in the 1970s and has spectacular views over the glorious Warwickshire countryside to the South and West. The property is in good order throughout, but offers any new owner the chance to personalise and finish to their liking. In brief, the accommodation comprises; five bedrooms (including one to the ground floor), three bathrooms, two reception rooms, fitted kitchen, utility room, and downstairs WC. It further benefits a substantial wrap-around garden, integral double garage, and driveway parking. This property is also being offered for sale with no onward chain.

Located on School Hill, which is between the village of Wootton Wawen and the former market town of Henley-in-Arden, the property is well placed for a wide range of amenities to include; shopping and recreational facilities (including the relatively new 'Field to Fork' farm shop and café), pubs and restaurants, both primary and secondary schools, a dentist, and doctors' surgery. It is also conveniently located for major road and rail networks, with the M40 (J16) and M42 (J3A) motorways located just 4 miles and 6 miles, respectively. The local railway stations ("Wootton Wawen" and "Henley-in-Arden") offer regular trains to Stratford-upon-Avon and Birmingham City Centre. A bus route also runs to Stratford-upon-Avon, Hockley Heath, Shirley and Solihull town centre.

Situated on a private road, this property is approached via a block paved driveway, which provides parking for several vehicles and gives access to the integral double garage. To the side and wrapping around the property, there is an attractive lawned foregarden with a range of mature plants, shrubs and trees. Two paved footpaths on either side of the property lead to the rear garden and the UPVC double glazed front door (with matching side panel) opens into:
