This substantial duplex apartment extends over the first and second floors of a boutique apartment block, tucked away in a quiet corner of the city. It offers versatile accommodation and the prospect of loft-style living with leafy rooftop views to York Minster. The apartment includes a garage and the use of a beautifully-tended communal garden. St Andrewgate is situated within the city walls between Monk Bar and King's Square in one of York's handful of tranquil residential areas in the city centre, just a short stroll from the city's amenities and railway station.

- Nearly 1500 sq ft of versatile accommodation
- Arranged over the first and second/top floors
- Contemporary fixtures and fittings including a Neptune kitchen, Villeroy & Boch bathroom
- Light-filled apartment with windows on three aspects
- Views of York Minster
- Ideal for downsizers, as a second home or AST rental
- Vacant, no onward purchase
- Garage
- Communal garden
- City centre location and strolling distance of York Railway Station

The front door on St Andrewgate opens to a communal hall and staircase rising to the first floor and private entrance of No. 47. One of only four apartments in this boutique apartment block, No. 47 is part of an award-winning development dating from the early 1980s.

On the lower/first floor are two generous double bedrooms with wooden louvre shutters, a house bathroom with Villeroy and Boch fittings and electric underfloor heating, an additional cloakroom/wc with Duravit sanitaryware, a kitchen and dining room/third bedroom.

The smart and stylish Neptune kitchen has granite worktops, integrated appliances, a Stoves Range Cooker, a sink facing the window, and a useful laundry cupboard. The erection of a stud partition wall has created the extra room/bedroom, currently used as a dining room. The option remains to return it to a single room extending the width of the apartment; this would potentially allow for a 23 ft kitchen/breakfast room or a principal bedroom with an en suite bathroom.

The room on the top floor is impressive; it extends 25 ft x 22 ft at its widest with a conservatory on the northwest corner that provides glorious views over the communal gardens to a medieval hall and west towards York Minster's great east window, the largest expanse of medieval stained glass in the country. A striking central brick column (formerly used to hold the gas flue) is obsolete and could be removed to create a loft-style kitchen/dining/living room space with elevation and views. This room has the added benefit of generous eaves storage and a separate entrance from the upper communal staircase, used solely by No. 47.

The current owners have only ever used No. 47 St Andrewgate as an occasional, second home, and its fixtures and fittings have therefore been subject to minimal wear and tear. This splendid city centre property is vacant and ready to move into.

Environs

St Andrewgate once formed part of York's network of ancient streets in the shadow of York Minster. It is now part of a tranquil residential corner that has been the subject of sympathetic redevelopment and lies just a few minutes' walk from the city centre shops and restaurants. York's mainline railway station, with regular services to London Kings Cross in under two hours, lies under a mile away on foot.
