No. 127 Clifton was built in 1875 by prolific York architects J B & W Atkinson and, in recent years has been renovated to an exacting standard, sensitively acknowledging the building's original features and incorporating contemporary design within its interiors. It is currently run as an independent boutique hotel, 'The Bishop & The Bison', offering 5-Star bed and breakfast accommodation. However, the layout lends itself to residential use, having been constructed as a high-quality dwelling for a prosperous family. Planning permission exists to return the property to residential use. The property is hugely versatile inside and out, and the rear parking area could easily become an enclosed rear garden. The house is convenient for the amenities of Clifton village, York city centre, St Peter's and Bootham schools and the railway station, all of which lie within walking distance.

- Period, end of terrace townhouse, not listed
- Substantial 3794 sq ft property arranged over 4 floors plus basement storage
- Versatile layout with partition walls offering scope to re-configure
- Superb principal bedroom suite on the third floor
- Stylishly appointed with high spec fixtures and fittings
- 3 designated parking spaces (potential to rent garages on the shared drive by separate arrangement)
- South facing inner courtyard garden

- 10-15 minutes' walk to St Peter's and Bootham school and the walled city

The entire property has been renovated and upgraded since 2020 including new Acacia hardwood double glazed windows, high specification en suite bathrooms and wallpapers by Cole & Son, Osborne & Little and Morris & Co. Some fine original features have been retained including the staircase with mahogany handrail and turned balusters, plasterwork such as ceiling rose, cornicing, skirtings, original cupboards, panelled doors and fireplace surrounds.

The reception area in the hall leads to the large and elegant dining room that services the guests, faces south and gives access to the inner courtyard garden. It features wooden louvre shutters, mellow floorboards, fitted cupboards, a handsome marble fireplace (aesthetic only) and French doors. A galley kitchen with contemporary fitted units and a range cooker faces the courtyard and connects the public areas to the owner's private living quarters. These private quarters comprise a generous living room, a well-proportioned space with a hardwood floor, skylights and windows with louvre shutters on the south and east elevations. Under the current arrangement, the owners have also retained the top floor bedroom suite for their own use.

The first floor sitting room is an impressive room with period detailing, a bay window and traditional marble fireplace housing a gas fire. The double bedrooms are arranged over the first, second and third floors, each one stylishly and individually appointed with an en suite shower room. The principal bedroom suite extends over the top floor and rises into the generous roof space, with skylights. It includes a bespoke and fully fitted dressing room and a skilfully designed bathroom with four-piece suite including a freestanding bath and walk-in shower. There is a large laundry cupboard on the landing and the basement has a series of storage rooms, ideal for wine. These lower ground floor rooms come with a good head-height, a fitted sump pump, a single window, power, lighting.

Outside

The house is set behind ornate wrought iron railings on a low brick wall and a garden gate that gives access to the front door. The paved forecourt is beautifully planted with well-established shrubs.

There is a walled inner courtyard garden that faces south, is paved, and has an espalier fruit tree along with colourful borders. It is accessed from the dining room as well as the private living quarters and provides a sheltered space for guests to enjoy.

A shared drive on the western side of the property sweeps around to the rear and gives access to a private gravelled area, currently arranged as parking space for three cars. This versatile space could easily be adapted to become an enclosed garden, if preferred.
