DESCRIPTION

A unique semi-detached former school house set in a private position yet within walking distance of the village centre, church, village hall and surrounding countryside. This charming unlisted property is thought to date back to 1847 and was used as both the village school and hall up until 2004 when it was sympathetically converted into a residential property. The accommodation set as reverse living is light, spacious and offers a wonderful blend of some stunning original features together with 21st century refinements. Externally the property benefits from off-road parking, easy to manage garden and detached double garage whilst also enjoying wonderful countryside views. This is certainly a one-off property so we would recommend a full internal inspection to appreciate fully what is on offer.

ACCOMMODATION

The entrance door is accessed via a private enclosed courtyard which also gives access to the garage.

On entry there is a porch area with space for coats, boots etc. From here is access to the utility room and inner hallway. All four bedrooms are located on the ground floor and consist of three doubles and one single/study. The dual aspect principal bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and en-suite with walk in shower, sink and WC. The family bathroom is also on this floor and includes tiled flooring, side panel bath, WC and shower enclosure. To the back of the hallway is access to the garden terrace.

An oak staircase with stainless steel handrail and glass balustrade takes you to the first floor and directly into the wonderful light kitchen/dining room which includes a vaulted ceiling with original wooden arch, three skylight windows and a good range of modern kitchen units with granite worktops, Franke sink, integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher, Neff double oven and induction hob with extractor above. On from here is possibly the most impressive room of the house which is the large sitting/dining room with vaulted ceiling, four original wooden arches, wooden flooring, skylights, wood burner and French doors to a small balcony which enjoys fine views.

OUTSIDE

To the front is off-road parking with space for a number of vehicles and double garage with 'up and over' door and pitched roof for storage. This could have potential to be converted into a home studio, gym or Airbnb unit (subject to planning permission). Please be advised the neighbour does have a right of way over some of the drive to access the adjoining property.

The garden to the property is easy to manage and enjoys views over the church yard and surrounding countryside. There is a small area of lawn and the owner has created a terrace area with glass screen which is perfect for alfresco dining as well as a small vegetable garden.

To the front of the house is a private and enclosed courtyard for seating with wood store and the original well still evident. Access into the garage.
