DESCRIPTION

A wonderful opportunity to purchase this substantial individual detached period residence which presents mainly painted rendered and stone elevations with double glazed windows beneath a slate roof. The property sits within 1.5 acres of gardens and grounds giving the property complete seclusion and privacy. The accommodation does require some updating but offers over 3000 square feet of flexible living space, arranged over two storeys and retains many of its original proportions which you would expect from a property of this era. We understand this will be the first time Oakenbury House has been offered for sale in 47 years so presents a very rare opportunity and will be sold with no onward chain.

ACCOMMODATION

An attractive porch with tiled floor leads into the reception hall, setting the tone for the rest of the house with an abundance of natural light and high ceilings. The reception hall leads to its principle rooms, the main living room with bay window to the front and a secondary reception room. These two rooms can be opened up by the internal wooden bi-fold doors, offering a drawing room with an open plan layout. To the other side of the property is the kitchen/dining room which is open plan and includes space for dining table and to the rear a range of higher and lower bespoke wooden units, inset sink, integrated fridge and space for oven. On from here is a door into the utility room with built in units, inset sink, space for white goods and door to the garden. The rest of the space to the rear of the property includes a WC, two useful store rooms and an study.

The striking galleried landing with skylight leads to four spacious double bedrooms, offering wardrobe storage space, and including a substantial principle bedroom that features a separate room with fitted kitchenette but would have potential to change into a en-suite. The first floor also offers another good sized bedroom, laundry room, family bathroom and a separate shower room.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached by wooden gates with a sweeping drive leading to plenty of parking to the front, single garage and detached workshop which could have potential to convert into a studio, annex, holiday letting unit etc subject to planning permissions.

The gardens are a true highlight and surround the property on all sides, with a generously sized south facing lawn to the front, flowering shrub beds, paved pathways and terraced areas adjoining to the house all surrounded by mature shrubs, a partly walled boundary and large established trees giving the property complete privacy. To the rear is a small selection of fruit trees, former fruit cages, greenhouse and secondary entrance gate from the nearby greenlane.
