ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering you are immediately struck by the grand yet welcoming reception hall. Light floods in and the proportions are superb with a beautiful four tiered staircase with typical Georgian mahogany rail and multiple twists which gives access to the upper floors.

On the ground floor there is a charming sitting room to the front with multi-fuel burner and large bay window looking out to the square. A versatile room currently being used as a secondary kitchen for commercial purposes with a range of worktops, fitted cupboards and inset sink but could make an ideal utility room. The basement can be accessed from the hallway and is currently being used as a utility room with space for white goods and general storage. There is also a WC and door to the rear courtyard with a passageway out to the roadside and village square. Perfect for coming in from muddy walks, bike rides etc.

A split landing gives you access to the family bathroom with roll top bath, WC, sink and shower enclosure, and the fabulous Georgian style roof terrace with space for seating, BBQ etc and enjoying wonderful views of the surrounding countryside. The first floor includes 3 double bedrooms, one of which includes a shower en-suite. There is also a 6th bedroom overlooking the square and is currently used as a dressing room but would also suit a home office.

The generous sized double bedrooms continue on the second floor where two more can be found off a good sized lobby with fitted cupboards as well as a WC and shower enclosure. With a door at the top of the stairs to the second floor this has been used by the current owners for guest accommodation and multi generational living.
