Situation

60 Atlantic Way benefits from an elevated position with distant sea views, located in the extremely popular coastal village resort of Westward Ho! A favoured destination for surfers, and water sports enthusiasts, Westward Ho! is renowned for its consistent surf and it's beautiful, award winning, 2-mile long, 'Blue Flag' sandy beach, famously backed by its unique, natural pebble ridge, The Northam Burrows Country Park (Site of Special Scientific Interest) and Royal North Devon Golf Club (the oldest golf course in England) are both located on the peninsula. The village hosts a large and diverse range of amenities including; two supermarkets, independent and artisan shops and an extensive choice of establishments of restaurants, pubs & cafes.

The port town of Bideford extends a wider range of facilities; including; a large assortment of shops, banks, pubs/restaurants/cafes and schooling for all ages (public and private), several supermarkets and a retail complex. The coastal resorts of Appledore and Instow are close by and offer a mixture of sandy beaches, fine pubs/restaurants and a historic quay amongst other amenities and attractions. The A39/North Devon Link Road (1 mile) provides brisk passage in/out of the area, to the regional centre of Barnstaple (11 miles) and M5 motorway Tiverton Parkway train station (London Paddington 1h 57m).
