Description

This charming three-bedroom semi-detached family home, beautifully presented, is the perfect retreat to the countryside. Situated in a peaceful cul-de-sac at the edge of a sought-after Dorset village, it boasts picturesque countryside views and a cozy atmosphere due to a woodburning stove in the sitting room. The property offers spacious living areas, benefiting from modern features such as oil-fired central heating, uPVC double glazing, solar panels. Additionally, there is a solar thermal system which also heats the hot water, reducing oil costs. Recently fitted carpets adorn the first floor, and an electric car charging point adds convenience for modern road users. The property is conveniently located near village amenities including a well-stocked shop, a pub, and a primary school, with further amenities in nearby Sturminster Newton. Early viewing is highly recommended to seize this fantastic opportunity.

Entrance Hall -

Doors to both the kitchen/diner and the sitting room, stairs to the landing and accessed via the side pathway.

Sitting Room -

A house in the countryside just wouldn't be complete without a wood burner to gather around. Impressive 8kW wood burning stove (the owner assures me it kicks out some heat) patio doors to the rear garden and scenic views of the neighboring farmland.

Kitchen/Dining Room -

Truly the heart of the home with an impressive amount of space on offer. Ample room to house a sizeable dining table for the avid entertainer or somewhere to seat the children for homework. This is an impressive and functional space that would blend itself for a multitude of uses depending on ownership.

Landing -

Stairs from the entrance hall, loft access to a mostly boarded loft with ladder and light. Access to all bedrooms and the family bathroom. Airing cupboard

Bedroom One-

A double bedroom with front view.

Bedroom Two-

A double bedroom with rear aspect which takes full advantage of the countryside views.

Bedroom Three -

A double bedroom with front aspect.
