The Lodge, Black Park, LL14 5AU

Offers In The Region Of £795,000

Town and Country Oswestry bring to the market this STUNNING four double bedroom 17th century, Grade II listed former hunting lodge with superb views across the Welsh hills. The property retains many original features including the large range style fireplaces, beamed ceilings and sash windows. Internal accommodation offers well laid out family living with a modern kitchen, three large reception rooms, four bedrooms (two en-suites), luxurious family bathroom and multiple attic rooms providing a potential buyer with plenty of scope for further conversion. To the outside, a sweeping driveway leads you up to the home passing the landscaped grounds with parking for several vehicles and quaint courtyard to the rear of this beautiful property.

Directions

From our Oswestry office proceed out of the town onto the Gobowen Road. At the roundabout take the first exit towards Wrexham and Llangollen. Continue to the next roundabout and take the third exit for Wrexham. Proceed along to the next roundabout and take the first left towards Llangollen. At the bottom of the hill take the first left towards Chirk. After approximately 200 metres turn left. Continue along for approximately 100 metres and turn left onto the driveway with wooden gate posts and white railings both sides. Follow the driveway up to the property.

History and Location

The property is steeped in history and was the original hunting lodge to the deer park of Chirk Castle, dating back to the 1600's. The property also has connections to coal mining and Black Park colliery was located at Halton and was one of the oldest collieries in North Wales. It produced coal from 1863 until it closed in 1949. The property lies a short distance from Chirk that has a lovely vibrant feel with cafes, church, shops, Chirk Castle, the famous Thomas Telford Aqueduct and a train station. Llangollen is also a short drive away and offers lots of facilities with a strong cultural background and various entertainment facilities. Road links connect the property to larger towns and cities such as Chester, Shrewsbury and Wrexham.
