To The Outside

The property sits in a prominent position in the village. There is a small garden area running along the front of the property along with access to the attached garage. The garage has an up and over door. The land directly opposite the house running along the West Arms is public land so you are also able to park there.

To The Rear

A pathway at the side of the property leads to a gate and the rear courtyard garden. The garden is mainly paved with a covered area along the rear leading to the back door.

Hen Felin

The Old Mill is a truly lovely Grade II listed building originally used as a Flax Mill and steeped in character and history. It is believed to be one of the oldest buildings in the village dating back to the 18th Century and has been used for various purposes over the years including a Welsh craft shop back in the 70's and 80's. The property is set over three floors and offers a fantastic opportunity to develop (subject to obtaining planning approval). A small fenced courtyard area leads to the front door. The ground floor is 4.16m x 3.43m and has a superb arched window to the front, a glazed door to the side and second window, quarry tiled floor, stone open fireplace, beamed ceiling and stairs leading to the first floor. The second floor is 4.16m x 3.43m having a window to the front and the side, floorboards, beamed ceiling, open fireplace and a large loft hatch giving access to the second floor. We believe it would be possible to install a staircase to the second floor as it has enough head height to create further accommodation.
