Chapel House Forton Heath, Shrewsbury, SY4 1EY

£550,000

Town and Country Oswestry are delighted to offer to the market this characterful detached chapel conversion. The Old Forton Heath Methodist Chapel was built in 1863 but since conversion now offers four bedrooms, two of which are en-suite and the most wonderfully appointed first floor living room offering fabulous views of the surrounding countryside and with many charming period features still in place from the buildings previous use. Situated in Forton Heath and being with 15 minutes of Shrewsbury and 20 minutes of Oswestry, this property offers a fantastic opportunity to purchase a deceptively spacious characterful home with all required amenities close by.

Directions

About the Area

Forton Heath sits approximately one mile from the village of Montford Bridge which provides easy access onto the A5 trunk road making it perfectly situated for those needing to commute but still wanting to live in a rural setting with countryside views. Being around 15 minutes into the mediaeval town of Shrewsbury or 20 minutes into the border market town of Oswestry it is very convenient and amenities are easily accessible. For those wanting to take advantage of the great outdoors, there are some fantastic dog walks locally and the property sits just a short distance from the Shropshire Cycle trail.

Accommodation Comprises

Porch

A modern front door leads into the hallway of the property, with quarry tiled floor and a decorative glazed panel (one of the original chapel features) remaining in place.

Hallway

From the hallway, Stairs lead up to the fantastic large lounge room and down to the ground floor accommodation. On the ground floor there is a door leading to under stairs cupboard and doors leading to the bedrooms and bathroom along with two radiators.

First Floor Lounge 22'11" x 27'4" (7.01 x 8.35m)

The well appointed lounge is one of the most striking features of this historic property. With the 'chapel' windows, now double glazed, and offering fantastic far reaching views of the surrounding countryside in every direction, this room feels like a great space for entertaining. Stripped wooden floorboards add to the character along with a coved ceiling and a large decorative ceiling rose. A wooden decorative fireplace with tiled inset and hearth houses an electric 'log burner' effect fire. There are four radiators and a door leads through to the master bedroom.

Conservatory 6'6" x 10'7" (2.00 x 3.25m)

The conservatory provides a lovely space for sitting with a morning coffee, with doors to the side of the property, and a tiled floor.

Boot Room

Perfect for access directly into the rear garden, the part glazed boot room is perfect for muddy boots. It has an electricity generator point a tiled floor and double doors leading to the rear.

Driveway and Parking

This property provides ample parking with a double width entrance and parking immediately outside the front of the chapel for 2/3 vehicles and a large gated block paved driveway to the side which provides parking for 3 further vehicles. There is security lighting and an electric car charge point.

To The Front of the Property

To the front of the property sits the original wrought iron fencing and entrance gate to the chapel which open to a pathway which leads to the front door, there is a lawned area and beds planted with various shrubs and plants. There is a passageway to the left of the chapel which is not used and gates to the rear at the right of the property.

Double Garage

The property benefits from a double garage with electric doors which can be remote operated. There are windows to the side and to the rear along with power and lighting along with useful eaves storage.

Rear Garden

The rear garden is another fabulous feature of this property and is something which is often lacking with a church or chapel conversion. There is a large paved patio perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining along with two generous lawned areas separated by a few small steps. The garden is planted with a number of mature trees and shrubs and is enclosed by hedging and fencing making it secure for pets or children. To the rear of the garage is a large wooden shed and at the bottom of the garden (well hidden) are three further sheds useful for the storage of tools, bikes and garden equipment.
