STEPHENSON BROWNE

Stephenson Browne are pleased to market this lovely traditional home. The property has been redecorated with new carpets and has a new gas central heating boiler. Internally the property boasts spacious accommodation with two separate reception rooms and a large modern fitted kitchen with bathroom and WC. On the first floor are three bedrooms, two of those being doubles. Externally, the property has a larger-than-average garden which is low maintenance, and ideal for investors. Buxton Avenue is situated in a popular residential area with the retail park, doctors' surgery and schools being within walking distance. Crewe Railway station is also a short walk away.
