

2 TOWN HOUSE BARNs RUSHY LANE,
BARTHOMLEY, CREWE, CW2 5PB

£475,000

STEPHENSON BROWNE

An exceptional three bedroom barn conversion occupying roughly 0.31 of an acre by Chamberlain Developments in 2020. Re-roofed, new windows, electrics, heating, insulation, fixtures/fitings. Building Regs, Warranty. Parking, garage, beautiful garden. fantastic views. Open plan ground floor, Master ensuite, bathroom, two further double bedrooms.

Believed to date from the late 19th century, this beautifully converted barn combines timeless rural charm with stylish, high-quality finishes throughout. Lovingly restored, the property features magnificent, exposed King trusses and vaulted ceilings, offering a sense of scale and character rarely found. It's set in a quiet, tucked-away location surrounded by rolling Cheshire countryside, yet remains remarkably well-connected for commuters and those seeking the best of both worlds. This exclusive and peaceful location borders land owned by the Crown Estate, ensuring minimal development in the surrounding area — a rare and valuable aspect of the property's setting. The nearby historic village of Barthomley offers a strong sense of community, with a charming 11th-century church, a Grade II listed pub (currently undergoing renovation), a local bowling club, and its own Parish Council.

Set within landscaped gardens, the outside space has been thoughtfully planted with specimen trees, low-maintenance perennials, and bee/butterfly-friendly plants. There are five generously sized planters suitable for growing your own vegetables amongst other uses. A beautiful, private patio offers an ideal space for outdoor entertaining or quiet relaxation, with a strong sense of seclusion. The garden enjoys a favourable aspect and peaceful outlook across the countryside. There is a gravel courtyard which provides a welcoming entrance with a real sense of arrival — this area forms an important part of the home's character. Please note the rear functions as the true "front" of the house due to the barn's original layout.

Entrance Hall
The interior of the barn blends traditional craftsmanship with modern comforts. Throughout the property, oak internal doors and thoughtful detailing add warmth and continuity. Upon entry, you're greeted by a spacious and light-filled interior.
