Ingleside, Marton Road

Birdingbury

Situated within the delightful village of Birdingbury, this link-detached bungalow offers three bedroomed accommodation and has been extended to the rear to provide an additional sitting room with a lovely outlook over the rear garden. The gas centrally heated accommodation has been well maintained by the present owner, with other notable features of the property including a lounge with through access to the aforementioned sitting room, well fitted kitchen, together with a utility room and three bedrooms, one of which is presently utilised as a dining room. The accommodation is complimented externally by an in-out driveway to the front providing direct access to a garage with electrically operated roller shutter door, whilst the well stocked rear garden offers a good degree of privacy as well as a greenhouse and garden sheds. Overall this is a rare opportunity to purchase a three bedroomed bungalow within a sought after and attractive village.

LOCATION

The village of Birdingbury lies approximately equidistant between Leamington Spa and Rugby being roughly 8 miles from the centres of both towns. The village is also located close to Draycote Water with its popular walks and cycle rides. The village has origins dating back to the Domesday Book and at its heart is St Leonard's Church and an active village hall and community room. There are good local road links available to the Midland motorway network, along with regular commuter rail services from Leamington Spa, Rugby and Coventry.
